Occupational Safety and Health: A Human Right

Convention No. 155
Occupational Safety and Health

“1. Each Member shall, in consultation with the most representative organisations of employers and workers, formulate, implement and periodically review a coherent national policy on occupational safety, occupational health and the working environment.

2. The aim of the policy shall be to prevent accidents and injury to health arising out of, linked with or occurring in the course of work, by minimising, ... the causes of hazards inherent in the working environment.”
