Decent Work in Asia

ILO Activities in the region

THIRTEENTH ASIAN REGIONAL MEETING

BANGKOK, AUGUST 2001

INTERNATIONAL LABOUR OFFICE
Contents

Introduction .................................................................................. 1

1. Standards and fundamental principles and rights at work in Asia and the Pacific ................................................................. 15

2. Employment: The best poverty reduction strategy ............... 33
   Jobs and incomes ................................................................. 34
      Full employment and poverty alleviation ......................... 34
      Local and rural development: The role and potential of the countryside in contributing to national wealth ....... 34
      The interplay between the market and the knowledge-based economy ................................................................. 37
      Reaching out to target groups ......................................... 38
      How do we measure work? ............................................. 40
      Underemployment: The hidden waste of human capacity .... 40
   Training for work ............................................................... 41
      The challenge of change .................................................. 41
      From education to employment: Not always a clearly marked highway .......................................................... 42
      Ageing of the population: Challenge and change for work patterns, training systems, health care and pension schemes 44
      The problem of resources for skills training and their optimum allocation: Defining priorities ............................ 45
      The problem of access to skills training: Those most in need of skills cannot get training ............................................ 45
      Providers of training: Who does it best? ......................... 47
      The marketability of skills: Certification – Of what?
      For whom? By whom? ................................................... 48 Incentives: What will make workers seek, accept and apply training? .......................................................... 48
      Retraining to “go back in there” ....................................... 49
   Employment strategies, macroeconomic policies and development planning .................................................... 50
   What do active labour markets require? .............................. 51
      Integrated approaches through country reviews ................ 53
      The role of systems for information and analysis ............. 54
DECENT WORK IN ASIA

The role of employment services ........................................... 57
The reform of state-owned enterprises: The economies in transition ................................................. 58
The informal sector as a survival strategy or business opportunity ................................................. 60
Small business, self-employment and cooperatives:
Ways out of informality ..................................................... 62
Migration for employment: A particular challenge for the decent work agenda ................................................. 66
“May I help to build your country?” The advantages of migration for recipients ................................................. 67
“Please go home”: The social and political problems of migration ................................................. 68
Can migration be organized better? The ILO and the IOM ................................................. 68
Looking forward ................................................................. 69
Training needs in a global economy ............................................. 69
Building on lessons learned and best practices with an emphasis on sustainability ................................................. 69
Meeting the opportunities and challenges of the new economy ................................................. 70
Using multidisciplinary approaches and integrated strategies ................................................. 70
Addressing the demand for labour market information ................................................. 70
Political commitment ................................................................. 70

3. Social protection ................................................................. 73

Occupational safety and health .................................................. 74
Conditions of work ................................................................. 80
Improve are achievable in even the smallest enterprises................................................................. 80
... and can achieve productivity gains ............................................. 80
New recognition of the problem of sexual harassment ................................................. 81
... and of problems in balancing work and family ................................................. 82
Social security ................................................................. 82
Extension of coverage ................................................................. 86
STEP programme and the extension of social security ................................................. 88
Micro-insurance: Is it an option? ................................................. 89
HIV/AIDS ................................................................. 89

4. Social dialogue: Participation and cooperation for decent work ................................................. 91

Tripartite social dialogue and the road towards democracy ................................................. 92
What happened to tripartism in the aftermath of the economic crisis? ................................................. 96
The institutions of tripartism in Asia and the Pacific: A long way to go ................................................. 97
5. A review of activities and the way forward .......................... 111
   A review of activities in the Asia-Pacific region ..................... 111
      East Asia .................................................. 111
      South-East Asia and the Pacific ................................. 116
      South Asia .................................................. 118
   A review of activities in the Arab States .............................. 127
   The way forward .................................................. 133