NINTH ITEM ON THE AGENDA

Other financial questions

Internal oversight

1. The Committee will recall that at its 267th Session (November 1996), the Governing Body approved amendments to the Financial Rules and the Staff Regulations concerning internal oversight. These amendments had been requested by certain member States in order to introduce arrangements which would afford a greater measure of autonomy and independence to the Chief Internal Auditor.

2. Since then, arrangements in respect of internal oversight have further evolved in a number of organizations of the United Nations system, and the Director-General is of the view that the Office should adopt similar practices, through amendments to the Financial Rules and the Staff Regulations, in order to increase the effectiveness of the ILO’s internal oversight function. The proposed changes relate to the appointment, termination, responsibilities and terms of reference of the Chief Internal Auditor. The changes involved concern:

   – reporting by the Chief Internal Auditor directly to the Director-General;

   – the reporting of cases of fraud or presumed fraud to the Director-General through the Treasurer and the Chief Internal Auditor, with provisions for full confidentiality and protection for the official making the report;

   – the reporting, by individual staff members, of complaints and information concerning the possible existence of waste, abuse of authority or other irregular activities to the Chief Internal Auditor, together with provisions for full confidentiality and protection for the staff member making the report;

   – an increased level of detail of the Chief Internal Auditor’s responsibilities and terms of reference;

   – prior consultation with the Governing Body on the appointment and termination of the Chief Internal Auditor;

   – responses to recommendations made by the Chief Internal Auditor.

3. The Committee may with to recommend to the Governing Body that it approve the amendments to the Financial Rules and the Staff Regulations set out in the appendix.
