Denunciation of Conventions

Austria

3. The Director-General registered, on 26 July 2001, the denunciation by Austria of the Night Work (Women) Convention, 1919 (No. 4), and the Night Work (Women) Convention (Revised), 1948 (No. 89). The text of the communication concerning the denunciation by Austria of these Conventions reads as follows:

(Translation)

Austria is obliged to denounce both the Conventions in question because the prohibition of night work for women is contrary to EU law. Denunciation will allow our national law to be brought into conformity with EU requirements.

Cyprus

4. The Director-General registered, on 9 July 2001, the denunciation by Cyprus of the Night Work (Women) Convention (Revised), 1948 (No. 89), and its Protocol of 1990. The text of the communication concerning the denunciation by Cyprus of these instruments reads as follows:

The reasons for the Government’s decision stem from the fact that the provisions of the Convention and the Protocol are contrary to the principle of equal treatment enshrined in the aforesaid Directive (Directive 76/207/EU) which requires Member States to abolish or revise any legislation which is contrary to this principle. For the same reason the Government of Cyprus will abolish the Employment of Women (During the Night) Law, Cap. 180.

Czech Republic

5. The Director-General registered, on 27 June 2001, the denunciation by the Czech Republic of the Night Work (Women) Convention (Revised), 1948 (No. 89), and its Protocol of 1990. The text of the communication concerning the denunciation by the Czech Republic of these instruments reads as follows:

I would like to inform you that the process of consultations with representative organizations of employers and workers is a well-established part of standard procedure of treating the ILO instruments by the Government of the Czech Republic (in accordance with ILO Convention No. 144 ratified by the Czech Republic in 2000).

Therefore the governmental proposal for denunciation of ILO Convention No. 89 and its Protocol of 1990 (along with the proposal for ratification of Conventions Nos. 135, 144, 150, 176 and denunciation of Convention No. 40) was sent to the following social partners in November 1999: Czech-Moravian Chamber of Trade Unions (CMKOS), Confederation of Arts and Culture (KUK), Confederation of Industry and Transport of the Czech Republic (SPD CR), Confederation of Employers’ and Entrepreneurs’ Unions (KZPS), Union of Railway Workers (OSZ), Union of Workers in Agriculture and Food (OSPZV).

The same proposal was subsequently discussed by the Working Group of the Council of Economical and Social Agreement (RHSD – the highest tripartite body in the Czech Republic) at its session of 25 November 1999, with no comment made on the issue of the Convention and Protocol in question.

Italy

6. The Director-General registered, on 6 August 2001, the denunciation by Italy of the Night Work (Women) Convention, 1919 (No. 4).

Panama

7. The Director-General registered, on 5 July 2001, the denunciation by Panama of the Minimum Age (Agriculture) Convention, 1921 (No. 10). The text of the communication concerning the denunciation by Panama of this Convention reads as follows:

   (Translation)

   This denunciation is based on the fact that the Republic of Panama, having ratified the Minimum Age Convention, 1973 (No. 138), considers it timely to denounce Convention No. 10.

Zambia

8. The Director-General registered, on 10 September 2001, the denunciation by Zambia of the Night Work (Women) Convention (Revised), 1948 (No. 89). The text of the communication concerning the denunciation by Zambia of this Convention reads as follows:

   In February 1998, I informed you that the Government of the Republic of Zambia in consultation with the Zambia Congress of Trade Unions and the Zambia Federation of Employers had resolved to denounce the Night Work (Women) Convention (Revised), 1948 (No. 89), at an appropriate time.

II. European Agreement concerning the Social Security of Boatmen Engaged in Inland Navigation

10. The European Agreement concerning the Social Security of Boatmen Engaged in Inland Navigation, for which the Director-General of the International Labour Office is the depository, was adopted in Strasbourg on 26 March 1993. On 14 June 2001, Bulgaria deposited the first instrument of ratification with the Director-General. According to article 52, paragraph 1, the Agreement shall enter into force on the first day of the third month following that in which the sixth of the instruments of ratification or acceptance by States including at least three States represented on the Central Commission for Rhine Navigation, or two of such States and Luxembourg, and three States represented on the Danube Commission, is deposited.

III. Internal administration

11. Article 4.2(d) of the Staff Regulations states:

Vacancies in the Director and Principal Officer category shall be filled by the Director-General by transfer in the same grade, promotion or appointment. Such promotions or appointments, other than to vacancies in technical cooperation projects, shall be reported to the Governing Body with a short statement of the qualifications of the persons so promoted or appointed.

12. The following appointments and promotions are accordingly reported to the Governing Body:
