Short biographies of these four persons are reproduced in Appendix I.

ILO Declaration Expert-Advisers

Reappointments

2. Further to the decision adopted by the Governing Body at its 288th Session (November 2003) to review the mandate of two members of the ILO Declaration Expert-Advisers, the Officers of the Governing Body recommend that the Governing Body reappoint for a period of two years as ILO Expert-Adviser:

- Ms. Maria Cristina Cacciamali (Brazil).

3. The Officers of the Governing Body recommend that the Governing Body reappoint for one year as ILO Expert-Adviser:

- Ms. Thelma Awori (Uganda/Liberia).
Joint Maritime Commission: 30th Session
(Geneva, 23 February 2006)

Composition

4. It is planned to hold the 30th Session of the Commission on 23 February 2006 immediately after the closing sitting of the 94th (Maritime) Session of the International Labour Conference. In accordance with its Standing Orders, the composition of the Commission consists of two members appointed by the Governing Body representing, respectively, the Employers’ group and the Workers’ group of the Governing Body, 40 members (20 Shipowners and 20 Seafarers) and eight deputy members (four Shipowners and four Seafarers) to be appointed by the Shipowners’ and Seafarers’ delegates at the 94th (Maritime) Session of the International Labour Conference. According to article 3 of its Standing Orders, each session of the Commission is chaired by the Chairperson of the Governing Body or, should he be unable to attend, by a substitute from among the members or deputy members of the Government group nominated by him.

5. The Governing Body may wish to appoint one representative of the Employers’ group and one representative of the Workers’ group to attend the 30th Session of the Joint Maritime Commission.

Agenda

6. The agenda of the meeting will consist of a single item: Follow-up of the consolidated maritime labour Convention.

7. The Officers of the Governing Body recommend that the Governing Body approve the abovementioned agenda.

Subcommittee on Wages of Seafarers
of the Joint Maritime Commission
(Geneva, 24-25 February 2006)

Composition

8. At its 280th Session (March 2001), the Governing Body, having considered the report ¹ of the Joint Maritime Commission (22-26 January 2001), agreed to the establishment of a Subcommittee on Wages of Seafarers, which should meet every two years. It also agreed that the Subcommittee should be composed of six Shipowner and six Seafarer representatives.

Agenda

9. The agenda of the Subcommittee, as submitted for discussion to the Committee on Sectoral and Technical Meetings and Related Issues (STM) ² would consist of a single item: The Seafarers’ Wages, Hours of Work and the Manning of Ships Recommendation, 1996 (No. 187): the updating of the basic wage of able seafarers.

10. Subject to the decision to be taken by the Governing Body as regards the convening of the Subcommittee on Wages of Seafarers of the Joint Maritime Commission, ³ the Officers recommend that the Governing Body approve the abovementioned agenda.

Joint ILO/IMO Ad Hoc Expert Working Group on the Fair Treatment of Seafarers in the Event of a Maritime Accident
(IMO, London, 13-17 March 2006)

Composition

11. At its 290th Session (June 2004), the Governing Body approved the establishment of a Joint ILO/IMO ad hoc Expert Working Group on the Fair Treatment of Seafarers in the Event of a Maritime Accident (Joint Working Group), composed of eight Government experts nominated by the International Maritime Organization (IMO) as well as four Shipowner and four Seafarer experts to be nominated by the ILO after consultations with the secretariats of their respective groups. ⁴ The IMO Legal Committee nominated eight member States (China, Egypt, Greece, Nigeria, Panama, the Philippines, Turkey and the United States) with the provision that any other government could attend the meeting as an observer.

Agenda

12. The terms of reference of the Joint Working Group were submitted to and approved by the Governing Body at its 291st Session (November 2004)⁵ and by the Legal Committee of the IMO at its 89th Session (25-29 October 2004). According to the terms of reference, the Joint Working Group should prepare suitable recommendations for consideration by the IMO Legal Committee and the ILO Governing Body, including draft guidelines on the fair treatment of seafarers in the event of a maritime accident.

13. The first session of the Joint Working Group took place from 17 to 19 January 2005.⁶ It considered that it was premature to envisage producing valid guidelines during its first meeting. However, it agreed on the adoption of a resolution that would stress the concern
